PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Senior full-stack engineer with 15 years shipping production web services and frontends end to end. Built NodeJS backend services on AWS Lambda and GraphQL APIs unifying legacy services at Placester, prototyped Django/Python products with founders at Fulton Works, and spent nearly eight years at SteelSeries designing large architectural features in React and Electron, an internal UI component library, and shared NPM libraries. Documentation-forward, mentorship-oriented, and comfortable owning services across the whole stack.
