PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Senior full-stack engineer with 15 years across startups and larger platforms, working across TypeScript/React frontends and Python backends. At SteelSeries, the internal UI component library and shared NPM libraries I designed and maintained became org-wide technical standards. Built a highly available healthcare messaging platform at Cerner, and recently a local LLM tool-calling project using Ollama's function-calling API. Documentation-forward and mentorship-oriented, known for pairing and constructive PR review.
