PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Senior full-stack engineer with 15 years across startups and larger platforms, working across React/TypeScript frontends and Django/Python backends. At Fulton Works, built React and Django applications end to end across multiple early-stage ventures. At SteelSeries, designed and maintained an internal UI component library and mentored junior developers via constructive PR review and pairing. Documentation-forward and TDD-minded, picks up whatever the stack requires.
